

THE HIDDEN PEARL OF THE ADRIATIC ...

Located between Croatia and Albania, this fascinating country is a treasure trove of history, great sailing, unique tourist attractions and great Mediterranean food.

We offer you a flotilla with a unique combination of sailing fun and fellowship, spectacular sceneries, and super modern marinas.

Discover the majestic Bay of Kotor with its namesake medieval city, the Perast Islands, and the Adriatic coastline with historic cities like Budva.

Arrive on Thursday in Tivat, home of Porto Montenegro so you can get a bit over the jetlag on Friday and get in the vacation mode. We will have a get-together on Friday with a welcome cocktail and, for those who want to join us, dinner at one of the local restaurants.

ASA MONTENEGRO FLOTILLA ITINERARY

SATURDAY

After a lazy morning, “Admiral” Mila will lead the provisioning party and raid the local market and grocery stores. Montenegrin cuisine is a mixture of Slavic Balkan and Mediterranean food. After our check-in of the yachts and chart orientations, we should be able to drop the lines and leave Porto Montenegro marina around 17:00 and sail to the city of Kotor. Dinner in one of the many restaurants of this walled city or at our favorite, The Galeon.

SUNDAY

After breakfast, we sail to the Perast Islands in the Bay of Kotor.

Enjoy the short sail to these two magnificent islands and visit the stunning church of St. Mary of the Rocks.

Our final destination of the day is Lazur Marina, near the old city of Herceg Novi.

Opportunity to visit Hecerg Novi and its castle.

MONDAY:

We head southwest from Zellenika, sailing into the Adriatic through the mouth of the Bay of Kotor, which separates Croatia from Montenegro.

Our first stop will be the Blue Cave, which you can enter from one side and exit from the other. Next destination is the Luštica Bay Marina where we will spend the night at the dock and enjoy a great meal in one of the local restaurants

Tuesday:

Budva is one of the most popular tourist destinations in Montenegro and only 12NM away.

Let's go across to St. Nicolas island with its 16th century church. Have a drink at one of the local bars and go for a swim in its crystal clear waters.

We explore Old Budva in the evening, followed by dinner at a local restaurant.

Wednesday:

Montenegro is still a great unknown to American tourists but there are so many exciting places to discover. One of them is the city of Bar, only 15NM away.

We will spend the night at the local marina and, only 4Km away, visit Old Bar with its medieval walls, old churches, medieval Turkish baths and mosques.

Dinner near the marina.

Thursday:

On our way back to the base, we will swing by Petrovac No Moru with its tiny church perched high on top of the rocks of the small Sveta Nedelja island. If conditions allow, we will anchor there for a swim, lunch on board and a visit to the island.

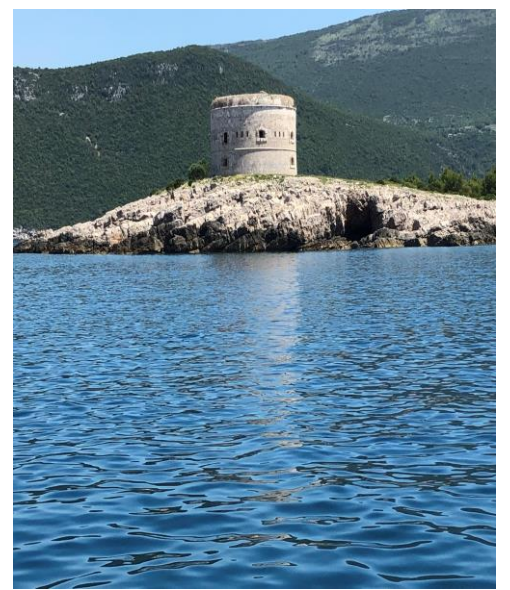

Depending on the wind direction, we will either anchor out for the night in the small bay of Dobra Luka or in the anchorage of Uvala Zanjica. We will raft up and have a potluck dinner onboard.

Friday:

That's all Folks! We must return to Porto Montenegro but – the Gods of the Winds willing – we will have the opportunity to do some good sailing.

On our way, we can visit some abandoned Cold War military installations.

Then, it is the final leg to the base. You can stay on board for the night and disembark by 09:00 on Saturday or go to a hotel for a real shower and a real bed.

Your flotilla Leaders

Capt. Jean and "Admiral" Mila have been organizing sailing flotillas with the American Sailing Association since 2009 and have introduced many sailors and non-sailors to fascinating destinations in the Mediterranean and the Seychelles.

They know the sailing waters and show participants places that many tourists do not know. They put a very heavy emphasis on safety while ensuring that all participants go home with fun and unforgettable vacation memories.

Jean, a native of Belgium, holds a USCG 100T Master License and teaches 101, 103, 104, 114, 105 & 118 in Florida and the Mediterranean.

Mila, born and raised in Peru, is for all intents and purposes, the Admiral of the flotilla, master organizer, first mate and the proverbial strong woman behind her husband.

Together, they run Whitecaps Sailing, an American Sailing certified school in Southwest Florida.
